

Architecture, Art and Industry (Columbus, Hope and Edinburgh)

Day One

The perfect place to start your architecture, art and industry adventure is at the Columbus Area Visitors Center. Learn about the community's architectural heritage and development. Take the famous architecture tour with a step-on guide.

Enjoy lunch at Smith's Row or Bistro 310. Both are known for their delicious gourmet cuisine.

Next stop Simmons Winery offering a wide variety of wines from Vinifera, French-American hybrids and American grapes.

At Elsbury's Greenhouses in nearby Hope learn about the flora product.

Dine at Boggstown Cabaret in Boggstown. A 1930s style-supper club that's been described as the "biggest little show in the world" offers a variety of entertainment.

Day Two

Start your day touring HNE Printers. The facility houses newspaper production operations for the Daily Journal (Johnson County), The Brown County Democrat (Nashville) and The Republic (Columbus).

The Exit 76 Antique Mall contains 550 booths/cases selling quality antiques. Grab some lunch then head to the Edinburgh Premium Outlets, adjacent to the antique mall, is southern Indiana's largest outlet with 70 stores.

In Edinburgh, learn how Indiana grown popcorn goes from kernel to sweet and savory popcorn at Not Just Popcorn, specializing in over a hundred gourmet flavors.

For additional attraction, restaurant and lodging information –
Columbus Area Visitors Center